STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On or about December 11, 2014, defendant Carlos Aguirre-Perez (“Defendant”) waived Indictment and entered a plea of not guilty to a single-count criminal Information, charging him with Removed Alien Found in the United States, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1326 (a) and (b).

II.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On or about November 14, 2014, at approximately 2:00 a.m., Defendant was found attempting to conceal himself in some brush approximately five miles east of the Otay Mesa, California Port of entry and eight miles north of the United States-Mexico international border. When questioned by the arresting Border Patrol agent, Defendant admitted that he was a citizen of Mexico without any documentation that would allow him to legally enter the United States.

After being placed under arrest, Defendant was advised of his Miranda rights. He waived those rights, and admitted that he is a citizen of Mexico who entered the United States illegally. He also admitted that he had previously been deported and has not requested permission to reenter the United States.

III.

ARGUMENT

A. MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

To date, the United States has produced 138 pages of discovery (including reports of the arresting officers and agents, criminal history reports, documents from Defendant’s A-File concerning his prior removals, immigration history, and citizenship) and one DVD showing the Defendant’s post-arrest statement. The United States will continue to provide additional discovery as it becomes available.

1 The United States also recognizes and acknowledges its obligation pursuant to
2 Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), the Jencks Act, and Rules 12 and 16 of the
3 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The United States has complied and will continue
4 to comply with its discovery obligations going forward. To date, the United States has 5 received no reciprocal discovery.
6

7 As to exculpatory information, the United States is aware of its obligations under 8 Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972),
9 and will comply. The United States will also produce any evidence of bias/motive and 10 impeachment or criminal investigation of any of its witnesses of which it becomes aware.
11 An inquiry pursuant to United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991) will also 12 be conducted.

14 The United States will provide a list of witnesses in its trial memorandum. The 15 grand jury transcript of any person who will testify at trial will also be produced.
16

17 The United States has provided information within its possession or control
18 pertaining to the prior criminal history of Defendant. If the United States intends to offer
19 any evidence under Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, it will provide notice
20 promptly to Defendant in accordance with Federal Rules of Evidence 404(b)(2). The 21 United States will produce any reports of experts that it intends to use in its case-in-chief
22 at trial or such reports as may be material to the preparation of the defense.

24 In sum, the United States has already produced charging documents, investigative
25 reports, removal documents, and criminal history rap sheets in this case. To the extent
26
27
28

1 Defendant requests specific documents or types of documents, the United States will
2 continue to disclose any and all discovery required by the relevant discovery rules.
3 Accordingly, the United States respectfully requests that no orders compelling specific
4 discovery be made at this time.
5

6 B. MOTION TO PRESERVE EVIDENCE

7 The United States has taken steps to preserve the evidence in this case.
8 Accordingly, a Court order is not necessary.

9 C. MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

10 The United States does not oppose the filing of additional motions so long as those 11 motions are based upon newly-produced discovery or newly obtained evidence and the 12 United States is given an opportunity to respond.
13

14
15 DATED: January 22, 2015

Respectfully submitted,

16 LAURA E. DUFFY
17 United States Attorney
